There's culinary "gold in them thar hills" – or at least "on the square" in Sonoma's El Dorado Hotel – report regulars of this "friendly" "favorite" where the "amazing truffle fries" elicit swoons ("did I tell you that they're heaven?"); "creative, ever-changing" Cal-Med meals and an "outstanding" "wine list that takes advantage of the local vineyards" can be enjoyed in the "cool, modern" dining room or on the "exquisite patio" "under the shade of a fig tree", while the "new" adjacent cafe "features live music" and picnic fixin's.
